Yearbook Dedicatee

Ms. St. Germaine came to Winslow in 1975 as an elementary art teacher and to Winslow High in 1991. Ms. Saint as she is affectionately known to her students has been a very active participant in all areas of WHS. She has worked diligently on the district art show over the years and contributed her time and energy to extra-curricular activities over the years. Ms. St. Germaine has always been available to sponsor a bus, a river trip, or any other activity that students undertake. She will be deeply missed by her students and the faculty of WHS and we wish her great trips and excitement in her retirement.

Dedicatees

WHS is proud to recognize Mr. James DuPree as one of this year's Homecoming Dedicatees. James is married to Nancy and has two girls, Jennelle and Jessica. He has been working in Winslow since 1998 and currently teaches at Washington elementary.

Our dedicatee can always be found at any high school sporting event, with his grandsons, Brandon and James, in tow. Mr. DuPree is an avid Bulldog fan and has been instrumental in getting the elementary schools on board with many Bulldog traditions. Each year, we look forward to him leading the cheers at the annual Homecoming Parade which goes by Washington school. We can always depend upon Mr. DuPree to lead the cheers and get the crowds involved to cheer on the Bulldogs at every event.
Though, born and raised in Montana, we proudly recognize Mr. DuPree as an outstanding Winslow Bulldog. Thank you Mr. DuPree!

WHS is proud to recognize Mrs. Helen Mayberry "aka" Nana Helen, as she is affectionately known, as one of our dedicatees for 2010. Helen is married to Robert Mayberry, has three children, Tyrone, Lynnisa, and Avera, all graduates of WHS. She also has nine grandchildren and one great grandchild. She has also adopted thousands of Bulldog students over the years and is always quick to offer a kind word of encouragement or a gentle reminder to keep them on the straight and narrow. Helen has been instrumental in making the cafeteria a fun, warm and welcome place for WHS students. She goes out of her way to know the students and has always been a supportive influence of the youth of Winslow for as long as she has been here. Her husband says she has a natural way with kids, which is a gift from God.
Everyone at WHS feels exactly the same way! We thank you for all you do Nana Helen and are so fortunate to call you a Bulldog!

Winterfest Dedicatee

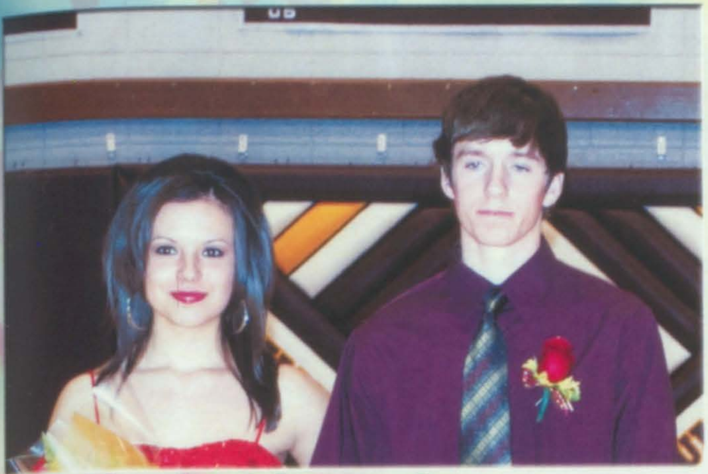

Rusty Robertson

Coach Robertson came to Winslow High in 2007 and has compiled a coaching record of 35 wins and 13 losses as the head football coach at WHS. He has been named the 3A North Coach of the Year 4 straight years. His teams have reached the quarter finals of the state tournament all 4 years that he was the coach at WHS.

Rusty is married to Hope and has 2 children, Kaylee and Bo. He has 6 grandchildren. Rusty is an active member of the First Baptist Church in Winslow and plays the drums in the church band. Coach Robertson has been active at our school, not only coaching, but working extra activities, helping in the athletic office, and mentoring our student-athletes.

Coach Robertson is moving to Auburn, Nebraska this summer to be near his family and we wish him all the best in his endeavors. Thank you Coach Robertson for a great 4 years!!

Sweetie,

A Precious little Angel was born into our family on December 25th. What a special blessing! Feeling your heartbeat against mine as I embraced you while watching the snow fall gently on mother earth as we enjoyed our first Christmas together. This is where your life began. Watching you accomplish your developmental milestones as an infant, toddler, and adolescent, to a beautiful young woman makes us "THANKFUL" for you. Sweetie, we know that you're an individual who always strives for excellence in whatever you do. you've set your standards high and believe that you can accomplish anything as long as you have faith. Along the way in life, there may be obstacles in your path, but there's no hurdle high enough that you won't be able to overcome. Your strength and determination will help you accomplish the goals you've set for yourself. As you continue to venture out into the world keep in mind that life in itself is simple and sweet as long as you choose the right. Going with your first instinct is a message from your heart(Follow your heart!). Continue to laugh and sing as long and loud as you can and dance like no one is watching. Doing these things is the best medicine anyone can ask for. Most of all, you'll always have family and home to come back to as this is where love is at. We're all so proud of the accomplishments you've received already and look forward to celebrating many more with you!

We Love You Sweetie!! (Mom, Cheyenne and Junior)

Noah Bear,

18 years ago I became a big brother for the first time. i don't remember exactly how I felt about it cause I was young myself, but I'm pretty sure i was upset. But I guess I learned to deal with you because I'm writing you a senior Tribute for your final yearbook.
All joking aside, these past 18 years have been anything but normal. You have already overcome so much, that I'm positive you will have no trouble accomplishing any of your goals in life. I know it has seemed like an eternity getting to this stage, but hopefully it was enjoyable because it only picks up speed from here on out. This may be the first time you have ever heard this from me, so hold on to this yearbook, because it may be "my first and last". I am so proud of you sister. With the life we have had, it was much easier to just stop caring and settle for mediocre. But you care for everything and everyone and also strive for excellence, keep doing what you are doing and know that I am always here for you. Especially if you attend the University of Arizona, I"ll be around more than you may want me to be. Go Cats!!!

Love your Big Brother,Bonito

When people ask me if my sister and I ever fight I am glad I can smile and say, "No". I don't know what I would do without you. You are the best sister anyone could ever have. I know all your dreams will come true and may you always find happiness in your life because if anyone deserves it-it's you.

Love Your Sister, Angela Lopez

My Dearest Christina,

Wow! how quickly the time has passed. I have enjoyed watching you grow and become the lovely young lady you are. Remember to always keep God in your Life. Work hard to make your dreams come true. Enjoy life- as this is just the begining. I love yoou and may God bless you always. Momma.

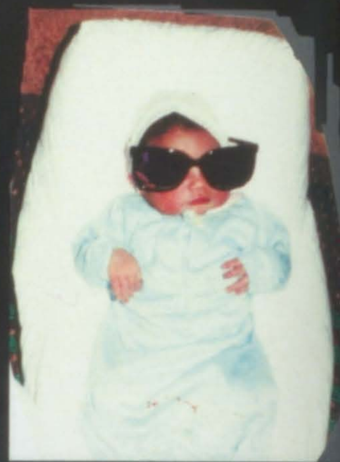

Gabriel Carlos Bailon

We are so proud of the young man you have become and even more proud of all your accomplishments. You have had some obstacles to overcome to past few years and
you have managed to overcome
them and graduate.
Time has gone so
fast and now it is time to let you spread your wings and fly. we wish you the very best in all your future endeavors and May God bless you in everything you do.
Whatever it is that you decide to do I know you will make us proud of you. remember the sky is the limit. We love you so very much. It is an honor to call you
our son/grandson.

Love Mom and Nana

Jason Crowson,

We are all so proud of you. You have been a blessing to us and I am thankful to have a wonderful son. We wish you the best the world can give you. You have grown up so fast, in a blink of an eye. Just think you are here not by chance, God chose you, his hands formed you and made you the person you are. You are one of a kind. You lack nothing that his grace can't give you. He put you here to be here at this time in history to fulfill his special purpose for this generation, Let your light shine. We love you very much.

Love,
Mom,Dad,&your sister!

"Class of 2011"

Wow-Where has the time gone! Only yesterday you were in kindergarten and now you are a WHS graduate!

Go and make your dreams come true. If you want it-you go get it! Don't let anyone or anything hold you back. Keep true to yourself, do not make excuses and keep your eyes on the prize. If you fall...pick yourself up, dust yourself off and start again. Never give up on yourself!

Always keep God first in your life, family and friends close to your heart and treat all people with dignity and respect.

So, it's with tears in our eyes, pride in our hearts and a smile on our face..we say...

Go spread your wings...and SOAR!

Love,
Mom, Dad and Fernando

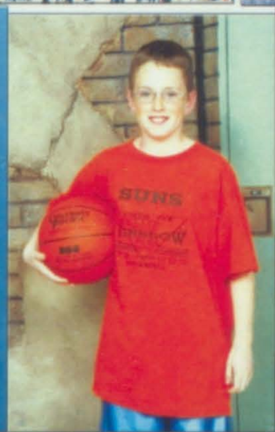

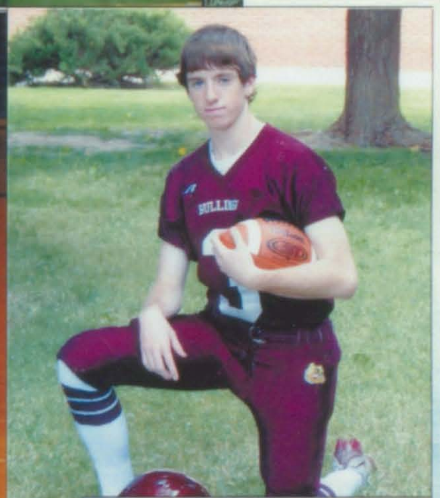

-We may fight a lot and disagree sometimes, but your always be my brother. I'm going to miss you when you leave for college, but I'll remember the good times.
I Love you Brother!
From: Your sister! Emily

Johnnie,
It just seems like yesterday when you started kindergarten and here it is your senior year.You are a great son and you make us proud with all your accomplishments!
Keep up the hard work!

We Love you!
Dad & Mom

Congratulations Adrian!

The day you were born we knew you were special. Minutes before you arrived there was a small earthquake in Flagstaff, and the earth has been shaking for the past eighteen years!

You have made some very different and courageous life choices in the past few years but we always know that we couldn't be more proud of you or love you more.

We know that, whatever you do or wherever you go, you will succeed with the same great determination that has carried you this far.

We are so proud of your accomplishments but we know that this is just the beginning....LOOK OUT WORLD.......HERE COMES ADRIAN!

You will always be a "star" in our eyes. Keep dancing and always hold your head up high.

We wish you all the best that life has to offer and we will always be here for you. God bless you.

Love,
Grandma & Pa-pa

Bubba...I am not a leader, I am not a follower,I am just my very own individual that has never had one dull moment in your life. The ice cream truck, motocross, the tamaracks, dad's truck and the flats, mom's car and texting, your cell phones, the slopes. scuba diving and much much more. May you continue to stay on the right path as you begin your new journey in life, we know that whatever and wherever you end up you will make the most of it. Have fun, and study hard!!

We Love You
Mom and Dad

Dear Baby Brother,
I can't believe we are all grown up! It seems like yesterday that mom brought you home and I hit you over the head with my doll. Even though I didn't get the baby sister I wanted, you come pretty close to it. Growing up you still stole all my stuff and it really bothered me. Now that we have grown out of the trying to beat each other up phase you have become one of my bestest buddies. All the fun we had in high school mostly getting in trouble together and all the memories we have made throughout the years. Some of my favorite memories ate the first time going hunting with you and you wanted to jump out of the truck naked and shoot at nothing to see how many hunter would follow you, Dad in the trailer yelling GOD BLESS AMERICA, driving through the valley in my box car listen to some good jams waving to everyone we saw and making my car rock, and "Bringing it back", all the movies you made me pay for, and the time you came to visit at the condo and wouldn't go to bed at five in the morning, going snowvoarding with you and you making hearts to every girl you saw, or when your were singing to me on the chair lift"You make me smile", buying coffee before going up the mountain and paying three dollars a cup and ended up wanted a ninty nine cent coffee, going to the mall with you and everyone thinking I was your girlefriend or when random people walked up to you and you knew them, Chayse, you and I trying to fit in the mini cooper. There are so many other memories I could talk about but mom would have to buy you two pages. I wish you would change your mind and stay closer after high school but you're growing up brother spread those wings and fly! I will always be youb big sister no matter what you get your self into, I'll be there to guide you through your problems or just point and laugh at you! I love you with all my heart even if I don't show it!

Loye your sister,
Mariah Paige

To our Dearest Melissa,

Who would have thought this day would come soon? We remember when you were in grade school like it was just yesterday. Even your junior-high years too. Although this has all happened like a blink of an eye we have cherished every moment we've had with you. You have grown up to become a beautiful young lady inside and out. To have accomplished what you have, is so awesome and we know you will go far in life. Please don't lose sight of your goals and know we are just a phone call or text away. We love you very much. Congratulations on yourachievements and awards and know that everyone is so very proud of you!

We Love You!

Mom, Arlin, Jessie&Christie

Melissa,

Where has the time gone? We are so very proud of you and want the best for you. We have watched you grow into an outstanding young lady. We are so proud of all of your many accomplishments- set your goals high and never settle. You have your whole life ahead of you and can do anything or be anyone you want.

Always remember....

Our arms are always open, our ears will always listen, and our hearts will forever hold you. May you always know that you will always have a place to call home. We love you and are so happy for you and very proud of you.

A Word From The Editors

Brandon and Stefan

Its day's like today that we will look back and remember all the good times that we had shared together as the senior class of 2011. As simply put we have done it! We would like to thank everyone who was involved in the creation of this yearbook without you guys this book would be lame! Also a very special thanks to Mrs. Long who had to deal with us over the years and helping us along the way. The end of the year is here and where ever life may take us we can always look upon the fact that we will always be bulldogs and the memories that were created here will last a life time. Congratulations class of 2011!
